- Students and staff are doing a wonderful job with distance learning. It is not without its struggles, but everyone seems to be handling things well.

- The school is preparing activities for families to have available over the summer. The most important thing students can do is to read.
- Decisions about fall reopening will be coming. Everyone is working hard on plans. Various items were discussed by Dr Amori and Dr McMorrان.
- If distance learning continues, the process will be streamlined and simplified in terms of assigning and collecting work.
