

Executive meeting notes 10/1/19

Attendance- Jackie Dyar, Gosia Tedawes, Iris Hotokov, Christine Schwartz, Jessica Nevins

- Bylaws will be ready for the November general meeting approval
- Socials this week are still needing volunteers
- Reflections is getting started CS will follow-up with Lisa Cederbaum
- Garden club is having trouble getting started because of stipend and union issues. The focus may be on creating a garden plan at this point for the fall
- JD met with 20 teachers and staff including our new liason, Ms Antipas. Spies and Goodwin have some ideas for professionals to come to school to talk to the kids
- GT-received School supplies check for $1222.20. JN is checking to see if that amount is correct. Also rec'd breakfast check.
- Vote to allocate up to $200 for Dr Amori to purchase Halloween supplies. JD, CS, unanimously approved. Ideally, some of that will be bookfair gift certificates.
- Fundraising- coffee isn't really selling yet, perhaps as holiday gifts
- Communication- has been updating peek of the week, will add a thank you for staff appreciation, socials, etc
- Student panel is preparing for PTA meeting. Will there be a live stream issue? JD will check.
- Dr M looking for money for increased security. Total security install will be $2500 but would like half to come from PTA.
- Vote to allocate $1250 to Dr M for new security enhancements. Not approved.
- Possible spirit wear fundraiser through school supplies company launching in January. JN will follow up.
- Nov meeting will be Break Out EDU at nights
- Dec meeting S4 Parenting SKills seminar will cost $200 and be an evening meeting
- Looking in to reciprocating events with Easton PTA